English Vocabulary Master Reference Guide

Module 1: Nouns (Countable, Uncountable, Singular & Plural Forms) / Kata Benda

Teaching Material
Bilingual Guide (EN–ID)

Structural Overview / Penjelasan Struktur:
English: Nouns identify people, places, things, or concepts. Countable Nouns can be counted individual units and possess both singular and plural forms (regular plurals end in -s/-es/-ies/-ves; irregular plurals undergo vowel shifts or base changes). Uncountable Nouns represent substances or concepts that cannot be counted as individual items and require measuring units (partitives).

Bahasa Indonesia: Kata Benda (Noun) mengidentifikasi orang, tempat, benda, atau konsep. Countable Nouns dapat dihitung secara satuan dan memiliki bentuk tunggal serta jamak (jamak teratur berakhiran -s/-es/-ies/-ves; jamak tidak teratur mengalami perubahan vokal/bentuk). Uncountable Nouns mewakili zat atau konsep yang tidak dapat dihitung per unit dan memerlukan kata takaran (partitif).

MODULE 2: ADJECTIVES & DEGREES OF COMPARISON / KATA SIFAT & TINGKAT PERBANDINGAN

Structural Overview / Penjelasan Struktur:
English: Adjectives modify nouns or pronouns to describe qualities, quantities, or states. They express three degrees of comparison: Positive (base form), Comparative (comparing two items using -er / more), and Superlative (comparing three or more items using -est / most). Categorized into Regular and Irregular comparative patterns.

Bahasa Indonesia: *Kata Sifat (Adjective) menerangkan kata benda atau kata ganti untuk menggambarkan kualitas, jumlah, atau keadaan. Memiliki tiga tingkat perbandingan: Positif (dasar), Komparatif (membandingkan dua hal: lebih...), dan Superlatif (membandingkan tiga atau lebih hal: paling/ter...).
